

About Dance Instructor, Toshio Suzuki

Toshio is from the city of Hamamatsu, Japan. He is a Country Dance maverick who believes “if you can walk, you can dance”.

Toshio has introduced and taught Country, Line and Square Dance to many Singaporeans and Malaysians over the past 33 years in Singapore. He is a founding member of the Country Line Dance Association of Singapore (CLDAS) and also teaches line dance at Serangoon Gardens Country Club.

1. RECENT ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Taught line dancing to a group of hearing-impaired members from The Singapore Catholic Deaf Community (SCDC) for their public performances in 2007.
- Led a group of line dancers to the famous Country Gold Music Festival in Kumamoto, Kyushu, Japan in October 2009.

2. SPECIAL ACHIVEMENT

Toshio is the choreographer of several line & partner dances. One of his choreographies, Too Many Rivers to Cross, is listed under “Dance Seniors Like” on the World Line Dance Newsletter website.